MAPHIS'S VIEWS ON EDUCATION

Has no Sympathy With Pauperizing of School Teachers.

SHOULD GET MORE PAY

And Not be Classed as Dependents Bidding Sympathy, Favors and Patronage.

Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 5.—That he "has no sympathy in the world with the effort which is generally made to patronize and pauperize teachers, and to hold them up to the world as objects of charity," and that "adequate salaries should be paid them," are the sentiments of Charles G. Maphis, director of the summer school of the University of Virginia, expressed last night.

Mr. Maphis was asked his opinion of the present agitation of the normal schools. He had nothing to say regarding the views of Attorney-General Williams, but talked freely of the poor pay of the teachers, and the tendency to treat tehm as deserving of charity.

While believing that the cost of attendance upon normal schools should be made as small as possible, and expressing a hope that larger appropriations will be made he gave it as his opinion that the root of the trouble lies in the small salaries paid to teachers.

"I have no sympathy whatever with the efforts which is generally made to patronize and pauperize teachers, and hold them up to the world as objects of charity," he declared. "As long as we do this, we lower the dignity of the profession, and lessen the respect in which the teacher should be held. I am heartily in favor of an increased appropriation for summer schools in order that the cost to the teachers may be reduced, not as a charitable gift to the 'poor teacher,' but on exactly the same principle that we appropriate money for our free schools, normal schools, and institutions of higher learning—as an investment on the part of the State.

"The State does not offer practically free tutition in the University of Virginia and other State schools because the students who receive the advantage of it are all objects of charity. Neither should a plea be made for free tuition for the teacher on that ground. The remedy, in my opinion, does not lie in this indirect way of pensioning, but in paying them adequate salares for the services they render. I believe we should do both. But after the legislature has increased the appropriation for summer schools so that free tuition may be given, there will still be traveling expenses, board, laundry and incidentals to pay, and nothing but increased salaries will adequately provide for these.

"Teachers should be paid salaries somewhat comparable with other lines of employment, which requires much less preparation and real ability. They should be paid so that they may be treated as other independent human beings, and not be forced into a class of dependents, bidding for sympathy, patronage, favors and charity."

Dr. Maphis said that there is no doubt about the value of the summer school to the teacher and to the school system. It has become a permanent national institution, he said, which has raised the standards of efficiency of the teachers as a whole body, probably more than any other educational agency. Many of the teachers can not complete their professional training entirely, as the lawyer or doctor, before he begins the practice of his profession, he said, and summer school enables him to do this in vacaton.

FUNERAL OF J. M. EVANS.

The funeral of James Milton Evans who died yesterday, will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from his late residence, 408 North Alfred street. Services will be conducted by Rev. W. F. Watson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, and interment will be in the Union cemetery.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Another very serious earthquake occurred yesterday in the vicinity of Chalhuanca, capital of the province of Aymareas, southern Peru. About a month ago a series of earthquakes destroyed scores of villages in this mountainous section, and resulted in the loss of more than 200 lives. No details of the disturbances have been received, but it is believed a volcanic eruption has occurred or is imminent.

Mr. Mitchie, of New York, has purchased a bulldog, White Marquis, from Sam Crabtree in London, for the sum of $1,575.

An appeal for the release of Rev. George D. Huggins, an aged clergyman, serving a thirty-year sentence in the New Jersey penitentiary on a charge of assaulting Viola Falls, a fifteen-year-old girl, whom he had adopted, will be offered at a meeting of the State board of pardons in Trenton next week. It is said that new evidence has been discovered that indicates he did not commit the crime.

Becoming frightened while posing last night in Washington for her photograph, Lady Sonia, a prize Siamese cat, valued at $500, and belonging to Mrs. F. Y. Mathis, of Greenwich, Conn., attacked Miss Gertrude Taylor, who was handling her, and after inflicting wounds upon the hands and arms of the young woman, escaped from the cat show headquarters at Kramer's on F street. It wears a beautiful $1,500 turquiose studded gold collar.

Armand Megarow, a young South American, was arrested in a vaudeville theater in Newark, N. J., yesterday afternoon on an amazing, charge preferred by Mrs. Marjorie Graff, of Brooklyn, a bride of two weeks. Mrs. Graff charges that while in a theater box, the only other occupant of which was Megarow, who was seated behind her, she was stabbed in the right hand with a needle, which injected a potent drug. Her arm became numb almost immediately, and staggering to the women's retiring room, she collapsed on the floor there.

In defending herself from the attack of her husband who, crazed by drink and jealousy, had already twice stabbed her with a carving knife, Mrs. Mary Pavalansky, thirty-six years old, of Philadelphia, yesterday seized a revolver as she staggered towards a table, weak from loss of blood, and, turning the weapon upon the man, killed him by firing a bullet into his heart and another into his brain.

An estate valued at about $185,000 of which $125,000 is real estate, is distributed by the will of William Wilson Finley, late president of the Southern Railway. It is dated March 21, last, and was filed yesterday in the probate court, in Washington. Several minor bequests are made, and Mrs. Lillie Davis Finley, the widow, is named sole executrix. Mrs. Finley receives a life interest in all the rest of the estate, and at her death the American Security Trust Company, of this city, is to hold the remainder in trust for the benefit of the children.

The home of Councilman Alexander Bijit of Swoyersville Borough, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., was wrecked by an explosion of dynamite early yesterday. The councilman, his wife and their children were thrown from their beds, but none was seriously hurt. Bijit, who is a Republican, told the police that his political foes were trying to kill him because he refused to be "bossed."

Owen A. Hart, 40 years old, was killed early last night by a train in the yard of the terminal station, Washington, where he was employed as an inspector of equipment. Three trains passed over Mr. Hart's body before it was found. Just how or by what train Mr. Hart was killed is not known.

CONFERENCE ENDS WITH A BANQUET

America's Part in Observance of Centennary of Peace.

MEN AND WOMEN MEET

Notables Tell of Workers For Universal Pacification and of Many Victories Won.

Richmond, Dec. 5.—The conference of the general committees designed to arrange for a universal celebration of the signing of the treaty of Ghent on December 25, 1814, came to a glorious close last night at the Jefferson Hotel, when noted men from many sections of the country spoke to toasts apropos of the occasion and the purpose of the committees.

The delegates to the conference had completed the work for which they were called. The committees had reported, and the outline of procedure had been mapped out. The general celebration of the treaty will be held at many points in the United States, and points in Great Britain, during the week of December 24th next year and the following weeks.

All the speakers during the sessions of the conference spoke of the significance of the meeting in Richmond, the capital of the State in which the infant government was rocked as in its cradle and from which it arose a full-fledged nation; a State which had sent many presidents and public men to the head of the government, and which now had as one of its sons the president of the United States.

After the committees had made their reports yesterday morning, General Manager "Bill" Dabney took the delegates in charge, and escorted them to the John Marshall high school, where several addresses were made, and where the school children entertained the visitors with patriotic songs. This meeting was a most instructive one for the children, who derived much profit from the remarks of the speakers.

There was some disappointment at the failure of Oscar S. Straus to be present. He was simply left behind in the hurry at the Jefferson. He however, appeared later at Beth Ahabah, where he gave a most interesting and instructive talk, which was fully appreciated by the large gathering.

After leaving the high school, Mr. Dabney carried the delegates over the city pointing out, with his assistants, the many places of interest.

After a rest, the deelgates, about 7 o'clock, were escorted into the banquet hall at the Jefferson, where, probably, the most brilliant gathering ever assembled at that hotel, entertained themselves and sounded the tocsin of perpetual peace, between English speaking peoples at least while the brilliant pleas of those who represented the French and German governments may be sounded along the pages of history, and help cement in peace all the Anglo-Saxon races.

Rev. Dr. Cecil offered a blesssing, before the banquet was served, and Dr. Calisch delivered the benediction.

LOW PRICES ATTRACT.

There is a reason for everything, and when you find a store prospering, its business increasing day by day, with hundreds of satisfied customers you must know that there is a good reason behind the proposition. In the case of Howard & Bro. at 822 King street, who are doing one of the largest grocery businesses in the city, the reason is low prices coupled with courteous, prompt and satisfactory service. DEATH OF MRS. BAKER.

Mrs. Virginia Baker, wife of Wm. F. Baker, died at her residence, 922 Duke street, this morning at 5:10 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and two sons, W. F. Baker, Jr., and Harry Baker.

COMING TO THE THEATRES.

Washington Show Houses Will Have Good Attractions Next Week.

At the Belasco—William A. Brady, who can always be relied upon for meritorious plays and productions is sending to the Belasco Theater for a return engagement next week George Broadhurst's dramatic gem of martial infelicity, "Bought and Paid For." The play, appeals with an equal force to both sexes. There are as many laughs in "Bought and Paid For" as there are intense moments, but when the tense moments come, they find you gripping the arm of your chair and living the whole thing through with the people on the stage. Through it all there is a strong human touch which Mr. Broadhurst achieved in building his play, and carefully brought out by Mr. Brady by the selecton of the artists who portray the various characters.

At the Gayety—The Gayety theatre offers the Golden Crook Company in a brand new two act musical burlesque revue, entitled "From Riches to Rags," as the attraction for next week beginning with the matinee of Monday, December 8. George Totten Smith wrote the book, and Jack Strouse the music for this entertainment of many scenes. Frank A. Burt, tramp comedian, Frank Dobson, ecentric comedian and dancer, Maude Rockwell, prima donna, and Flo Vernon, singing and dancing soubrette, are featured in the body of the performance and individual specialties. The Golden troupe of Russian dancers, the Hippodrome four, and a spectacular ballet direct from Europe figure among the vaudeville features.

At the Academy—"The Shepherd of the Hills," a dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's novel of the same name by Mr. Wright and Elsbery W. Reynolds, is announced for production at the Academy next week.

In making a play of his story, the author, in collaboration with Mr. Reynolds, has retained the big dramatic possibilities of the book, making the love story of Young Matt and Sammy Lane his big theme.

STRIKERS GATHER IN PHILADELPHIA

Ten Thousand Garment Workers Throng City Hall Plaza.

HALF-STARVED CROWD

United Business Men Denounce Manufacturers When Investigators Make Report.

Philadelphia, Pa, Dec. 5.—More than 10,000 men and women workers massed in the dense throng on the north plaza of City Hall yesterday afternoon, while Select Council, within hearing of the crowd, unanimously concurred in the resolutionadopted at the last meeting of Common Council, providing for the appointment of a committee which will attempt to settle the garment workers' strike.

The great crowd, made up mainly of half-starved and pitifully ragged strikers, was quiet and undemonstrative, giving absolutely no trouble to the 400 uniformed and plain clothes policemen who were scattered through the throng. They had come to make a demonstration in favor of the resolution. All they did, however, was to listen to a few speeches by labor leaders reciting their grievances against the garment manufacturers.

Their demonstration was a rather useless display of numbers. Select Council from the first had determined to adopt the resolution whether strikers assembled or not. The resolution itself is a meaningless piece of legislation, and the Councilmen admit that they have absolutely no power to interfere in any way with the strike.

However, when a committee of 25 members of the Central Labor Union, who sat in the gallery of Select Council and heard the resolutions approved, came down the street and informed the asembled thousands that the measure had been passed, the big crowd set up a cheer and quietly dispersed, most of the workers probably thinking they had won a great victory.

The scene on the street presented a squalid picture of the effect of the strike.

No parades are admitted during the strike, so the crowd came to the plaza in small groups. At 12:30 a dense throng had gathered, patiently waiting. Several labor men sat up soap boxes and made speeches.

Most of the crowd were foreigners; fully half of them did not understand English. The meeting was supposed to have been made up of representatives of all labor unions, but there was hardly any one there but the striking garment worker and the general committee of the Central Labor Union. President James C. Cronin, of the C. L. U., mounted one of the soap boxes at the beginning of the meeting and asked the strikers to preserve order at all costs. Throughout the afternoon his advice was strictly heeded.

Hundreds of policemen were mixed among the crowd but there was nothing for them to do. Practically the whole staff of city detectives was also on the job.

THE McMENAMIN CASE.

A case of unusual interest in Alexandria was argued before the Supreme Court af Appeals in Richmond yesterday, when the court took up the suit of Mrs. Alice McMenamin, of this city against the Southern Railway for $7,500 damages, which is alleged to have been caused by the smoke and cirt from the engines of the defendant. The case has been before the courts three times.

Arguments were made by Judge J. K. M. Norton for Mrs. McMenamin and Col. Francis L. Smith for the railway company. The court took the case under advisement.

WOMAN ATTACKED.

Assailant Overpowered And Affair is Hushed Up.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 5.—In broad day light Wednesday, a well-dressed middle-aged woman, who resides, apparently in the fashionable West End District, was seized by a highwayman and robbed of $15 when a short distance south of the Commonwealth Club, 401 West Franklin street.

The woman was carrying an umbrella. Using this for a weapon, she struck the robber several sharp blows over the head and screamed loudly for help The highwayman, described as a tall, heavy set white man, ran and the woman followed still crying for help.

Two men descending the steps of the Commonwealth Club saw the robber dashing by and threw themselves upon him. A struggle ensued and he was overpowered.

The woman's money—a roll of bills—was found and returned to her.

The club men were eager to call a policeman and have the robber locked up but the woman would not hear of such a thing. She begged to be allowed to go, saying she would not have her identity to become known for fifty times the amount of money involved and that under no circumstances would she appear in court to prosecute the case. There was nothing to do but respect her wishes and the robber was released.

HUERTA FACING ANOTHER PERIL

Soldiers Engage in Mutiny and Refuse to Receive Orders.

WANT PAY AND FOOD.

Residents of Mexico City Anxious—Fear Capital is Unprotected From Riotous Uprising.

Mexico City, Dec. 5.—A new peril has been added to the situation here in the capital on account of the threat of a general mutiny of such Huerta troops as have been left to garrison the city.

This movement has been feared for several days, since one of the regiments assigned to patrol duty in center of the city refused point blank to perform further service until paid their wages and furnished with proper food These troops stacked their arms in the street but remained near them, defying the remainder of the city garrison to put them under arrest

Since that event, which was smoothed over by a distribution of some money among the regiment which mutined, the trouble has been spreading, until now it is feared hourly that the federal troops not only in the capital but those who are in the outlying districts fighting the Zapatistas may mutiny for the same reason and leave the capital city defenseless against either an attack or an outbreak within the city itself.

ROBBED HIS BENEFACTOR.

Young White Boy Aided by Salvation Army, in Hands of Police.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 5. — Chester Breese, a young white boy, about 15 or 16 years of age who was given shelter at the Salvation Army headquarters upon his arrival in this city several weeks ago and later through their efforts secured a position in one of the mills of the Belt Line Railroad, was taken into custody Wednesday afternoon by Policeman T. Talbot on a charge of theft.

Having gotten the position for the youngster he was later given a home with Mr. Charles F. Houtoff, in County street, Cottage Place, convenient to his work.

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Houtoff reported to the police that his residence had been robbed of a suit case containing some clothing, a safety razor, and a sum of money and that Breese was not at work.

Policeman Talbot immediately upon receipt of the information instituted a search for the youngster who was located with the missing articles.

When searched at headquarters the missing articles were found in cluding $9.15 in cash. He admitted after being questioned that he had escaped from a reform school in the north but refused to reveal the city or state in which it was located.

Breese, who though quite young, talks like an old experienced hand at the game and is thoroughly acquainted with the geographical location of quite a number of cities throughout the northeast.

The masquerade ball given by the Elks' Dancing Committee last night in their home on Prince street was a most enjoyable occasion, a number of novel features having been introduced to make the evening one of great pleasure. A large crowd was present and the costumes were most attractive. The grand masked march was followed by the latest dances, the orchestra being accompanied by soloists. During the evening Miss Leona Callan, of Washington, gave a graceful Spanish dance. The prize for the best costumed lady was won by Miss Leona Callan, of Washington, and the gentlemen's prize went to Mr. Harry Fleischmann, who was "disguised" as a German. The fish walk was closely contested and was won by Mr. Bernard Hamilton and Miss Katherine Few. It is the intention of the committee to make these Thursday dances very attractive, and special features will be introduced each week.

Miss Christina Kemper entertained the Auction Bridge Club of which she is a member last evening at her home in Rosemont. Those playing were Miss Chloe Cooke, of Baltimore, Miss Esther Green, Miss Alice Anderton, Miss Esther Burke, Miss Sophie Tackett, and Miss Christina Kemper. Messrs. ANNUAL MASONIC EVENT

Vice President Marshall Will Make Principal Speech at Annual Gathering

Speakers of national prominence will respond to toasts at the annual banquet of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons which will be held on February 23rd in honor of the birthday of George Washington, first master of the lodge.

As the 22nd of February falls on Sunday next year, the banquet will be held on Monday, the 23rd.

A committee of members of the lodge, consisting of Samuel W. Pitts, worshipful master, Charles B. Swan, senior warden, Charles H. Callahan, past district deputy grand master and David G. Grilbortzer, visited Washington yesterday and delivered the invitation in person.

Among those who accepted are Vice-President Marshall, who will make the principal address of the evening, Senators Owens, of Oklahoma, Thompson, of Kansas, Martin and Swanson, of Virginia.

The night of the Twenty-second of February is always observed by Alexandria-Washington Lodge by a Masonic reunion and banquet. While most members of the craft of this city are generally present, brethern from many points of the compass appear at the festive board on these occasions. It is one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the year, and of late Armory Hall has been used on such occasions, as the accommodations for such a gathering are ample in that place.

On recent anniversaries of the birth of Washington prominent Senators and Congressmen have been in attendance and enlivened the occasion with thrilling addresses. Hon. William H. Taft while filling the position of chief magistrate of the nation was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of Alexandria-Washington Lodge a few years ago and made the principal speech of the evening. Like others who had preceded and those who have followed him, he greatly enjoyed mingling with his Alexandria brethern.

The coming banquet will doubtless be as interesting and enjoyable as others, and the fraternity are looking forward to a delightful experience at their next annual gathering.

GIVEN NINETY DAY TERM.

Negro Purloins Hair Brushes From King Street Store.

A negro named Arthur Grigsby was arrested yesterday on the charge of entering the Lozano dry goods store and appropriating to himself a box of hair brushes which had been placed on the counter among the display of other Christmas goods. The stolen articles were subsequently found in a shop where they had been pawned.

The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning, when, in his defense, he stated that he was not guilty of the charge preferred against him, as he found the brushes in some trash he took from the store.

Justice Caton sentenced him to serve ninety days in jail. This was the only case disposed of in the court this morning.

BOARD FIXES HOLIDAYS

Teachers and Scholars Will Have an Intermission of Twelve Days

The City School Board was called to order a few minutes past eight o'clock last night. Dr. Smith, chairman, presided. There were also present Messrs. Kirk, Pierce, Bradshaw, Myers, Cox, Howard, Ervin, Wattles and Thompson.

The business presented was of a general nature, and there was no discussion.

Several bills for supplies and labor were presented, having been approved by the finance committee and they were ordered to be paid.

A communication was received from a company in Washington who offered to clean the windows of Lee school building for $25, and those of Washington school for $20. No action was taken, as it was suggested that this work is supposed to be done by the janitors.

Dr. Smith announced that Dr. Albert Johnson had offered his services free to the colored girls' school in the ninspection of the children. His offer was accepted. Dr. Smith had stated that Dr. Powell had been performing similar work for the white schools gratis.

On motion of Mr. Pierce the members of the Cameron Club, were granted perimisson to place tickets for their entertainment in the hands of the teachers who will distribute them to scholars to be disposed of to such persons as may desire to aid the club which is maintaining at its own cost. a visiting nurse for the schools. Miss Bowling, assistant superintendent of the Alexandria Hospital, is performing this service in a very acceptable manner.

Superintendent Sweeney, who attended the educational conference at Lynchburg made an interesting talk on his observations during the meeting of that body. He also made several suggestions on educational lines which has been discussed during the conference

The superintendent subsequently made his report of the working of the schools during the month of November. The report showed normal conditions. There had, Mr. Sweeney said, been a slight falling off in attendance which was generally the case during November.

The board at an early hour adjourned.

DANIELS VISITS NORFOLK.

President of the Chamber of Commerce Comments on it.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 5.—F. S. Royster, president of Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, says he thinks that great significance attaches to the visit of Secretary Daniels to Norfolk, coupled with the expressions made here by Mr. Daniels concerning the development of the Norfolk navy yard.

Mr. Royster said that the Secretary expressed himself to him as favoring the expansion of this yard, the fitting of it for building ships and the construction of a mammoth dry dock, in line with his recent recommendation to the Congress, and that he feels assured that Mr. Daniels is a firm believer in the advantage this port offers and the yard there will be made a great naval base if his recommendations shall be carried out.

He also faces a charge here of attempting to beat the Lexington Hotel out of a bill for about $13.

The young man admits that he over drew his bank account while in Norfolk. He says that betting on the horses at Jamestown is responsible.

He came South six months ago and had been alternating between Richmond and Norfolk. He says he has been selling stock for a patent train device for a concern in the latter.

Soon after being brought to police headquarters a well-dressed young woman called and conferred with the detectives as to the advisability of her paying the hotel bill for Enequist She left saying she would take the matter under consideration until tomorrow morning.

A petition asking Governor Mann to use his influence with the incoming Legislature was forwarded to him yesterday by the four commissioners appointed by him to represent Virginia at three negro expositions held during the past few months in northern cities.

The exposition would be held in Richmond, it is proposed, and would contain exhibits of the industrial, mechanical and agricultural work of the Virginia negro, as well as the educational achievements of the race during the fifty-one years of its freedom.

ESTATE OF THE LATE W. W. FINLEY.

William Wilson Finley, who had spent the greater part of his life in the railway business, and who had filled many of the subordinate positions before he became president of one of the largest systems in the world, was not basking in millions when he reached the end of life's journey. His estate is appraised at $185,000

As head of the Southern Railway Company his salary is said to have been $50,000 a year, but it seems, the enormous expense incident to such position gave him but little opportunity to accumulate a colossal fortune It is supposed by many that men in such positions are "on the inside,' and that their knowledge enables them to grasp opportunities which are beyond the vision of ordinary speculators. The career of the late Mr. Finley shows that this is not always the case, as the man who conscientiously gives his entire time and exertions to an important trust has but little opportunity to juggle in other affairs. In fact, not only people in exalted positions, but men in the lower walks of life, if they are faithfully performing the duties expected of them by their superiors, are compelled to make their private affairs of secondary importance.

Mr. Finley will not be lined up with Pierpont Morgan, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jay Gould, James Fisk and other railway magnates who have left many millions for others to fight over in the years to come.

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Text of Letter Asking for New Bridge at Rosslyn.

The following is the text of the letter which was delivered to President Wilson by the Alexandria County Public Service Commission asking for a new bridge across the Potomac at Rosslyn.

"At a meeting of the Committee on Public Utilities of the Alexandria County Public Service Association, held on the 25th of November last, acting under a resolution referred to it by the Association as a whole, which resolution directed such committee to prepare and address to your Excellency a statement of the conditions affecting the traveling public over, along and upon the bridge known as the Aqueduct Bridge, connecting the city of Washington, District of Columbia, with the Virginia Shore, extending from what is known as Georgetown to the town of Rosslyn, in the county of Alexandria, and, acting under this resolution with which the committee was in full accord, we beg to be permitted to state to your Excellency the following:

"The Aqueduct Bridge at the time of its construction many years ago, was, possibly, adequate to meet the needs of the travel between the Virginia shore and the city of Washington, but in the past ten years the said bridge has been wholly inadequate to meet the public needs.

"A few years since there was placed on the west side of the bridge a single electric railway track, which is in use by the cars of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway, which company operates its lines from what is known as Thirty-sixth and M streets, in the city of Washington, to the Great Falls, in the county of Fairfax, in the State of Virginia, and another line, departing from said Great Falls line, to Bluemont, in the county of Loudoun, State of Virginia, and, in its operation, feeds a large and extensive territory, and, of necessity, runs a great many cars. It also operates a "bridge car," crossing and re-crossing the said bridge, carrying passengers and connecting with the Washington-Virginia Railway Company and the Capital Traction Company, and thus runs many cars daily.

"This bridge is in use for wagon traffic and pedestrians and is used by thousands of citizens of Alexandria county, Fairfax and adjoining counties, so that many hundreds of wagons, as well as many thousands of pedestrians must pass and across it daily. In the town of Rosslyn are located the freight yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which company supplies most of the freight for West Washington, it being hauled by large and heavy trucks and large and heavy wagons; and also this bridge accommodates most, if not all, of the wagon, carriages and automobile traffic to and from Fort Myer and Arlington Reservations, places which many hundred of sightseers daily visit.

"This committee desires further to bring to the attention of Your Excellency the further fact that this bridge, which was built many years ago, although at that time it partially accommodated the traffic using it, was very narrow, and the placing thereon of the track for the use of the electric lines has so narrowed it as to make it not only unsafe for wagon and pedestrian traffic, but, at times, owing to this fact, traffic is completely blocked.

"This committee desires further to state that it is our opinion to be essential that a bridge be made and constructed at this point of such width as to carry double tracks for the use of the electric lines connecting the city of Washington with the state of Virginia, and also to accommodate the very extensive wagon and pedestrian traffic which now uses it and will, in the future, increasingly use this bridge.

"This committee is advised (and in fact it has been rumored for many years) that this bridge is unsafe, and this committee, with much respect, begs leave to refer Your Excellency to the reports filed with the War Department, covering the conditions with reference to its safety.

"This committee dsires further to invite the attention of your Excellency to the report recently filed with the War Department by a board appointed for the purpose of suggesting if possible, the relieving of the congested conditions at the Rosslyn and of this bridge, in what is known as the "neck of the bottle," and in this connection, respectfully urges that some relief should be had also in this ecial connection.

"It is the honest belief of this committee that a serious public necessity exists for the immediate improvement of the bridge in question, and this committee most respectfully urges that your Excellency will consider this matter and take such action, or make such recommendations as will, in your wisdom bring about such relief.

Respectfully,
(s) W. W. MALONE,
President.
(s)E. E. ALDRED,
Chairman Public Utilities Committee.'

A LOVELY FACE BUT UGLY HAIR.

How often you see an otherwise lovey face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity!—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull, lifeless-looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, soft, silky and beautiful as the heart could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It is not a hair dye or hair oil—it is just a dainty, rose-perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped very ornamental bottles with sprinkler tops .Harmony Hair Beautifier $1.00, Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the Big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King St., Alexandria, Va.

Murder and Suicide.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5.—Enraged because his wife, Mary, refused him the money she had earned scrubbing floors in a Market street department store, John Polanski, 37 years old, Wednesday shot her three times, and then turning the weapon on himself fired the same number of bullets into his own body, Polanski died a short time later, and his wife was taken in a dying condition to the Roosevelt Hospital. After an examination the physicians declared she could not recover. While lying on a cot in the hospital Mrs. Polanski made an ante-mortem statement to Magistrate Scott in which she related the details of the shooting and of her husband repeated threats to take her life.

Death of a Veteran.

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 5. — Wade Nowlin, aged 72 years, a lawyer, died Wednesday night here. He was formerly associated with the late Senator John W. Daniel and his father, the late Judge William Daniel. He was a Confederate veteran. Death was due to apoplexy.

Farmer Commits Suicide.

Strasburg, Va., Dec. 5.——Boyd Hupp, aged 34, a farmer, committed suicide Wednesday in the suburbs of town by shooting himself. One ball from a revolver pierced his heart and two others hinged down his left side. THe had been despondent for some time.He is survived by his mother and one brother.

Col. Barbosa Ghoste, a Mexican federal officer, faced a rebel firing squad after the battle of Aviles and, with two bullets in his breast, lived to tell the story. He reached the capital today, and told of his almost miraculous escape. The colonel said that after the battle he and nineteen other captured officers were blindfolded and backed up against a stone wall to await execution by a firing squad told off by the rebel commander. When the soldiers fired the nineteen others fell dead. Ghoste fell with them and was left for dead, but in the night he revived and managed to make his way to Mexico City.

BACK GIVES OUT.

Plenty of Alexandria Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—
They can't keep up the continual strain.
The back gives out—it may ache and pain;
Urinary troubles may set in.
Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.
Alexandria people tell you how they act.

C. N. Rauch, 223 N. Royal St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I was troubled by my kidneys for three years and I think continual lifting was the cause. I had to give up my work, but my back continued to bother me. Finally my kidneys began to annoy me. I doctored for a long while with one of the leading physicians in this city, but he did not cure me. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Leadbeater & Sons drug store. In a few days they relieved me and I continued taking them until I was well. Not a symptom of kidney complaint has bothered me since. I feel that I owe Doan's Kidney Pills my continued praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 19.)

A breach of promise suit for $2,500,000 was filed in the Federal Court in St. Louis yesterday by Baroness Ursula Barbara Von Kalinowski, of Wiesbaden, Germany, against Michael J. Hurley, of St. Louis. The petition says that the baroness met Hurley in Paris in July, 1912, and since that time has spent $100,000 in traveling and preparing for her wedding. On July 22, 1912, two days after she met Hurley, says the baroness, he gave a dinner in Paris and announced his engagement to her.

THE WAY TO PREVENT COLD WEATHER DISEASES.

There would not be lots of sickness during cold weather if folks would take common-sense ordinary precautions against it. When you hear there is small-pox around, you don't lose much time in getting your family vaccinated. But lots of you do not use the same good sense in preventing pneumonia, typhoid fever, rheumatism and other diseases, some of them very serious and dangerous, and some of which nearly every member of your family is almost certain to suffer from before the winter is over unless some medicine is taken to build up the body and put it in perfect order before cold weather sets in.

Vaccination prevents the growth of germs of small-pox in the blood, and puts the system into a proper healthy condition to resist small-pox. Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is designed as an aid to prevent as well as relieve disease. It strengthens the body to overcome the germs and helps to put your system into the right condition to resist disease. It contains the four hypophosphites recommended by physicians to tone the nerves and blood, in combination with purest Olive Oil, to nourish and strengthen them.

You who are weak and run-down, you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom of sickness of you and your family. Pleasant-tasting, containing no alcohol or dangerous drugs. You'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King street, Alexandria, Va.

After hooting down a proposition for a part of the membership to return to work, the teamsters' union of Indianopolis at a meeting late yesterday adopted a resolution demanding that the Central Labor Union call a general walkout in sympathy with the teamsters' strike, which started four days ago. The request will be taken up at a meeting of the strike committee of the Central Labor Union.
